$15,000,000 FRUIT PRODUCTS MERGER

EIGHT UNITS IN HUGE COMBINE

FRESNO, May 7.—UP—One of the most significant agricultural developments of President Herbert Hoover's administration was disclosed here tonight when announcement was made of a merger by eight of California's largest fruit product manufacturers into a $15,000,000 organization.

"Creation of the Federal Fruit Stabilizing corporation, which will take complete advantage of the federal farm relief bill now before congress, has been completed and eight of the state's largest fruit products manufacturers have been merged into a $15,000,000 organization," Donald D. Conn, managing director of the Industries, Inc., said.

"The farm relief organization has been set up in advance of final congressional action on the administration's plan for agricultural relief," Conn continued. "The California banking institutions have given the assurance that adequate funds will be available until the anticipated legislative action has been taken and the structure of the stabilization corporation is such that the future financing can be obtained from the government in the event the farm relief bill is passed. By obtaining the pledge of funds at this time stabilization has been expedited and it has been possible to perfect an industry-wide program for the handling of the 1929 crop.

BRADY HIT IN JURY ORDER

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The county grand jury will make formal demands that District Attorney Matthew Brady file vouchers covering his contingent fund expenditures.

The matters may be taken to the court if Brady refuses to file an account, Presiding Judge Conlan told the jury.

In the event that the court decision goes against the district attorney he will be given an opportunity to comply with the ruling. Should he still persist in refusal to comply with the order it would be up to the succeeding grand jury to take whatever actions that it sees fit.

While members of the grand jury committees declare that it was a farthest cry in the thoughts to charge Brady with wrongdoing, or to suggest his removal from office, they did declare that Judge Conlan had ruled that the district attorney was violating both state and political codes and the city charter in refusing to give an account of his contingent fund expenditures.

Imbach Wins Veteran Aid

GEORGE IMBACH, whose friends see victory for him at the election for councilmen to be held here Monday

FRIENDS SEE VICTORY FOR G. F. IMBACH

As the municipal campaign is drawing to its close, the ex-soldiers of Richmond who are aiding George F. Imbach, in his fight for election for the short term as a member of the council, report that unexpected support is coming daily to the candidate and they expect him to be elected next Monday by a very large vote.

Imbach is not seeking election on his service in the World War alone. He is making it on the basis, that he is a property owner, thoroughly acquainted with the needs of the people of Richmond, on account of his long residence in this city, and that he will devote his best endeavors not for any clique, but for the best interests of the people of the city as a whole. He believes he can render the taxpayers a real service.

One of Imbach's workers stated that it was his belief that the candidate would carry every precinct in the city at the election Monday.

RICHFIELD TO RAISE GAS TO 20C

Richfield oil dealers in bay regions will raise the price of their gasoline to 20 cents a gallon, according to an announcement made last night.

This step, it was announced, is in conformity to the telegram of C. M. Fuller, president of the Richfield Oil company guaranteeing retailers of Richfield gasoline a four cent margin under whatever competitive conditions may arise.

Competitive oil companies will welcome the effort of the Richfield company to stabilize prices of gasoline, it is believed although officials of various oil companies refused to be quoted last night.

It was intimated, however, that major oil companies will advise operators of their leased stations to meet the rise in price to be posted this morning by Richfield dealers.

Officials of the San Francisco Garage and Property Owner's association and the San Francisco Retail Service Station Dealer's association and the San Francisco Gasoline Stations, Inc., last night said their respective memberships would continue to sell gas at 17 cents until convinced that all station operators are willing to stabilize the price at 20 cents a gallon and refrain from price slashing.

It was reported in press dispatches from Los Angeles that Richfield dealers are selling gasoline at 19 1/2 cents a gallon there.

The resolution lost by a vote of 42 to 13.

A heated row broke out on the floor of the lower house soon after the water program was reached on the floor. Assemblyman Crittenden gave a detailed explanation of the proposal explaining that it embraced a $70,000,000 dam at Kennett on the upper Sacramento river, a $24,000,000 series of dams and pumping plants at the mouth of the San Joaquin river, $15,000,000 for flood control on the Santa Anna river system and $15,000,000 in a state aid for constructing the $15,000,000 salt water barrier across Carmichael straits.

POLICE HUNT ELEPHANTS

Fish as big as elephants and elephants as elusive as fish. Those are among the things that are bothering members of the Richmond police force these days.

The information, that several of the Richmond police department went on an elephant hunt a few days ago was revealed yesterday.

"Use kindness and herd them into a pen if possible, but shoot if they endanger life," those were the orders given out when the elephant herd of a circus visiting in Oakland, broke loose.

The pachyderms took to the Southern Pacific right of way and headed for Richmond. A hastily mustered riot squad of the local department was sent out to meet them, while arrangements were being made to halt all trains when the word came that the trainers had overtaken the elephants in automobiles and the hunt was over.

The fish? Well that's another story.

THE FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

When the federal reserve law was passed in 1913, one of the most prominent bankers and political leaders of the middle west declared that while the principle of the law was correct, the power of inflation and deflation given to the federal reserve board possessed elements of peril and a degree of control over the economic life of the country which might in time throw the banking question into politics again, with another Andrew Jackson leading a movement against the "banking interest."

There is a strong suggestion of that possibility in the present situation, with the federal reserve board in conflict with many industrial interests in its persistent attack upon high prices in the stock market. The federal reserve board contends that prices of stocks are inflated and that credit is being strained in stock market speculation. Many industrialists claim, however, that recent high prices of stocks do not represent inflation, but for the most part values warranted by the profits and prospects of industries. They point out that the speculative fever is not found at its worst in stock market investments, but in many wild-cat and blue-sky projects throughout the country and that the greatest danger of a financial and industrial panic is found in the frequent outgivings of the Federal Reserve Board intended to discourage speculative activities on the stock market. These pronouncements have been followed by two or three serious sags in the stock market which have brought disaster to many thousands of small investors, who are inclined to join the chorus of criticism of the federal reserve board.

While the federal reserve board is accused by opponents of its recent policies of adopting measures which create danger of a panic extending from the stock market to financial and industrial enterprises generally, Senator Carter Glass, one of the authors of the act, stoutly defends it and commends the federal reserve board for discouraging stock market speculation by contraction of credit facilities.

WHAT IT MEANS TO LIVE

People sitting in their homes and upon the streets of California cities listened to the conversation of a man flying around over the city in an airplane. A few days later they tuned in and heard the music of a phonograph in an airplane that was flying around in the air over New York city.

Now a man scudding through the clouds over New Jersey called up a telephone exchange in New York and was hooked through to any of the numbers he happened to want.

This was all accomplished by a combination of radio and aviation.

The people will be able to do all those things for themselves in a very short while.

And we call it civilization, thus giving a new meaning to that term and changing the meaning every few days.

Prohibition's masterpiece of irony is 16 deaths from poison hooch at Peoria, Illinois. That it had to be Peoria, once the well-spring and fountain-head of America's noblest whiskey stream!

John Gilbert Lauds Role He Has In Picture

Every actor has his favorite screen role.

John Gilbert, whose new starring picture, "The Mask of the Devil," is being shown at the Richmond theatre, today, believes that this present picture reached the screen in the best possible role.

He prefers the role which dealt in characterization. At the young Vincent Edwards in "The Mask of the Devil" he has found opportunity for characterization, much more than in the usual role of the hero.

He plays a dual personality, a man who is both evil and good, but who at first allows evil to so completely master him that he very nearly loses his soul. The story feels, however, it offers him an opportunity to play the one, if not greater, than he had in "The Mask of the Devil."

Theodore Roberts, who has an important part in the new picture, says that the public will always remember him for his role of "Alfred" in "The Ten Commandments." He himself performs his role in "Grumpy."

Detective Aids Radio Owner To Find 'Static'

SANTA BARBARA, May 7.—UP—"Ice-box static" is the last word in radio—and it took a detective to solve the problem of its elimination.

Joe Caldron is one of the many in this city who keep up on all the newest wrinkles in the way of radio hook-ups. But when his expensive parlor set had to run competition with static emanating from the kitchen ice-box it worried him.

He couldn't discover what manner of apparatus had connected itself with his pet refrigerator, so he called upon Detective Lieut. H. S. Colt. The latter arrived in due time and Caldron showed him the errant "cooled" and bade him listen.

"Humph!" quote the good lieutenant.

"Yeah?" queried Caldron, as a higher note mingled with the lower sounds.

"Puddle hoppers," the officer volunteered.

Together, they crawled under the house and fished two frogs out of the ice-box drain pipe.

Chamber of commerce and other civic leaders, Mayor John L. Davie will present to Grayson the key to the city. Under the direction of Chief of Police Don Marshall a caravan of automobiles will make a tour of inspection to the many points of interest in the Eastbay district. At 6:00 p. m. at the Oak Knoll Country club Grayson will be the guest of honor at an elaborate banquet.

According to the program outlined by Graves, at 8:00 p. m. the official party will return to the Veterans Memorial building, Harrison and Grand Ave., Oakland, where Commander in Chief Grayson will be the speaker of the evening at a huge gathering of United Spanish War veterans, members of other Veteran organizations, the ladies of their auxiliaries, city and county officials and many others prominent in the civic life of the community.

All camps in Oakland and surrounding territory are requested by Graves to be present with their colors as early as possible as a capacity crowd is anticipated.

Parker Resigns From Board Of American Cigar

At meetings of the boards of directors of the American Tobacco company and American Cigar company, Junius Parker, chairman of the board of directors of the American Tobacco company and president of American Cigar company, resigned these two official positions.

The American Tobacco company elected no successor as chairman of the board, and it is not contemplated that it will name a new chairman of the board. C. F. Kelley and Vincent Riggio, heretofore assistant vice presidents, were elected vice presidents. Nathan Weiss, now and for many years a vice president of American Cigar company, was elected a member of the board of directors of the American Tobacco company.

George W. Hill, president of the American Tobacco company, was elected president of the American Cigar company to succeed Parker and Charles A. Penn, vice president of the American Tobacco company, was elected as an additional vice president of American Cigar company.

With respect to his resignation Parker made the following statement:

"My retirement from official connection with the American Tobacco company and its controlled companies including the American Cigar company, seems to me of no special significance. It has been induced simply and only by my belief that the duties and responsibilities that ought to be discharged and assumed by one holding an executive or other official position in a business corporation are more onerous to me than the duties and responsibilities of a lawyer practicing law as I intend to practice it. The gentlemen who managed the company and will manage it, and the gentlemen who managed and will manage the controlled companies, have had and continue to have my esteem, respect and confidence; that the business of the company and its fiscal affairs are in excellent condition is shown abundantly by its published financial statements. I am not becoming again the counsel of the company as I was before I became chairman of the Board. It now has a most capable counsel—but he and the officers of the company have offered me, and I have been glad to accept, a retainer that will give them the right to confer with me on legal matters and any other matters."

PIES USED TO PUT OUT FIRE

HAWTHORNE, Nev., May 7.—UP—"It looked like a scene from the third reel of a Mack Sennett pie-throwing contest, but it was not. It was a pie-eating contest in which the halibut heroes proved to be the victorious 'fire swallows'."

It all happened several days ago when Miss Alice Molini, a teacher in the Hawthorne schools emptied a pan of hot ashes from her kitchen stove into a paper carton on the back porch of the little blue house in which she and a fellow-teacher, Miss Scarlet, are keeping house.

The three luscious pies had just been removed from the oven when the little household was thrown into confusion by the two young ladies discovering that the house was afire. But that didn't bother the resourceful Alice, she just placed the red tanged fire monster with the blackberry pie triplet. It was a good thing she did, for as flames leaped in this desert town, the water was out.

Incidentally, but not so gosh-awful incidentally either, Hawthorne is that town in Nevada where the United States government is spending a million or so dollars building a munition factory. It would take a lot of pies—but that is disagreeable.

more years of study on the water program would place it in a better position to receive favorable vote of the people at a general election.

Opponents of the motion contended that the views of the Assembly on the water question would not improve the cause of water conservation in the state.

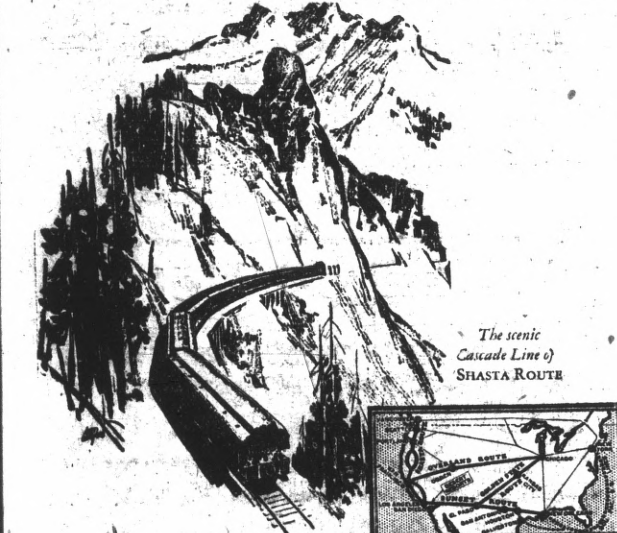

Assemblyman Robert Easley of Antioch declared that his region had fought valiantly to get the salt water barrier included in the water program and that citizens of Contra Costa and Solano counties would resent such a method of killing the bill.

Heated words flew between Assemblymen Lyman Van Bernard of Butte City and Adams when the former hinted that power interest were behind Adams move.

As a result of the vote tonight the water amendment goes on the Assembly floor for a final vote on the floor tomorrow.

Grandma is cooking with electricity

"JUST keeping up with the times," says Grandma Collins, "I am one of the many new users of the electric range. I was just over at the P.G. and E's office and they told me one thousand five hundred of their customers will get electric ranges this May and June."

The electric range gives a beautiful, clean kitchen and perfect baking to women who love modern methods.

The electric range has white and gray porcelain enamel that makes kitchens attractive. It bakes perfectly. And it does it automatically. The oven heats up to 400 degrees in 9 to 11 minutes—as fast as one can mix biscuits. The open or closed cooking elements are now made smaller to fit your pans. Heat that was formerly wasted goes to work. Food cooks faster, less electricity is used.

While you're downtown, stop in at a dealer's or at our office and see these new electric ranges. Or telephone us and our representative will gladly show you pictures of the many beautiful new models.

OAKS WALLOP STARS IN FIRST

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—(U.P.)—Sensational playing of the San Francisco Missions continued today and they advanced six full games ahead of the second-place Los Angeles Angels in the Pacific Coast league.

The Missions came from behind to trounce Sacramento Senators, 8 to 7, while the Angels were losing to the Portland Beavers, 17 to 9. San Francisco's Seals and the Oakland club both won and the Hollywood Stars lost so the two bay region teams remained in a tie, but moved up to third place, forcing the Stars into fifth position. The Seals and Oaks were only one game behind Los Angeles. Oakland defeated Hollywood, 4 to 2, scoring four runs in the first inning. The Seals had nine runs in beating Seattle, 4 to 3.

Eight runs of the Beavers in the second inning dampened enthusiasm of the Los Angeles fans, so the contest at Sacramento was the most exciting of the day. The Missions overcame a two-run lead by Sacramento with five runs in the fourth and fifth and made three more in the seventh. Then the Senators scored five times in the last three innings to keep the result in doubt until the final out. There were 1 error in the circuit during the day, Hollywood being the chief offender with four.

Fireman Nine To Meet Redwood Team May 26

The Richmond Fire Department ball club is preparing for its annual game with the Redwood City department here May 26 at the First Street field.

Last year the Richmond squad won an 8 to 5 victory over the Redwood City team with Carl Kamb pitching for the locals.

Largely due to the friendship of Fire Chief W. P. Cooper and Chief Mark Ryan of the Redwood City department, a rivalry has developed between the two teams. Today these two squads are rated as the best firemen's teams in the state.

Big Stripers Entered For Span Contest

To date striped bass fishing honors in the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers beyond Antioch bridge go to Mrs. Rose H. Bateman of Berkeley who hooked a 25-12 pounder at Linton a week ago last Sunday.

However, Louis B. Manual, of Manila avenue, Oakland, brought in a 27-12 pound striper to Hank Boyer of the Antioch bridge to be weighed last Sunday. Manual captured the big fellow off Linton on the Sacramento river. Boyer is offering a 20 pass toll book good for either the Carquinez or Antioch bridge to the person catching the largest striped bass beyond the Antioch bridge.

"Scores of fishermen came in with good strings of the big fellows but Manual brought the only one that looked as if it might be the competition," reported Boyer.

Sgt. George Barstak of the Presidio who landed a 25-pounder a week ago returned to the Linton district last Sunday accompanied by his wife. While catching several stripers he didn't get any that was of competitive size.

Pollution Of Beach Leads To Arrests

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 7.—Pollution of the waters of the Pacific ocean by oil operators must stop in Santa Barbara county as well as in other parts of the state or the operators will be haled into court for contempt as a result of the victory scored by the Division of Fish and Game in its action against the Submarine Oil company and G. F. Becker, operating at Sumnerland.

After a case against these defendants and two others, the Seaside Oil company and J. E. Lillis, had been worked up by John Spencer, chief of the bureau of hydraulics of the Division of Fish and Game, who has charge of the work of pollution prevention, the suits were tried in the superior court of Santa Barbara county with Judge H. S. Gans of Tehama county presiding.

Upon the information that the Seaside company and Lillis had cleaned up their properties, the state moved for and gained the dismissal of these cases while the Submarine company and Becker were perpetually enjoined from polluting the waters of the state and given 90 days to clean up the property adjacent to their drilling operations.

"This is a fine victory and shows that we mean business when we insist that our waters must be kept free from oil pollution. I am much gratified with the result of this suit," Fish and Game Commissioner Reginald G. Fernald of Santa Barbara declared after hearing of the decision rendered by Judge Gans.

"THE PHILLIES"
40 YEAR OLD OUTFIELDER WHO HAS PLAYED UNDER FIFTEEN MAJOR LEAGUE MANAGERS
HE'S STILL SPRY ENOUGH TO HIT A HOMER WHEN THREE MEN ARE ROOSTING ON THE BAGS.

Cy Williams, outfielder of the Philadelphia National League team, has grown too old for regular service but can still pole out a homer with three men on the bags in a pinch. He holds one major league record that probably never will be equalled. Some players may be so cruel as to suggest that they don't care to equal it.

Cy has had in his major league career 15 managers, which almost amounts to one manager per year for the lanky home run hitter. These managers are spread out over the time beginning when Cy at a youth cajoined in the outfield for the Chicago Cubs and down to the more present generation of Phillies under Shotton.

Salmon Fishing In Sacramento River Studied

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 7.—Several articles of intense interest to sportsmen, conservationists and the many in California who realize the importance of the fish and game resources are contained in the current issue of California Fish and Game, the official quarterly magazine issued by the Division of Fish and Game of the Department of Natural Resources.

The salmon fishery of the Sacramento river is covered in the opening article by G. H. Clark, while N. B. Scofield, head of the commercial fisheries bureau and a recognized authority on commercial fish, goes into the conditions existing regarding salmon in California.

Clark traces the history of the salmon industry on the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers since 1852. In fact, he explains that this industry closely followed the discovery of gold in California, and even in 1862 reports indicate that the catch was falling off. The first salmon cannery was established at Washington, Yolo county, in 1864. Despite the crude methods used, the success was so great that in 1881 there were 20 canneries operating on the Sacramento river and in the San Francisco bay region. While the first cannery produced 2,000 cases in 1864, the 20 others in 1881 and 1882 turned out 381,000 cases. Clark also tells of the hatcheries for artificial propagation of salmon by the United States government in 1872, and tells also of the millions of young salmon planted from the hatcheries on the McCloud river at Battle Creek, Mill Creek, and the state hatchery at Sisson.

Scofield insists that measures must be taken to protect the Sacramento salmon, and explaining the need for immediate action. He points out that trawling has had much to do with the depletion, but also that pollution of streams, building of fish dams and the failure to properly screen outlets have also taken their toll. Both of these articles are in detail in the magazine which may be obtained by applying to the Division of Fish and Game, 810 Russ building, San Francisco.

Other articles of interest have to do with investigation of duck disease, crab fishing in Monterey, HILL'S Cascar-Bromide-Quinine, the old time fishermen and the great catches made, the Tuna industry in San Diego and golden trout planting in the high Sierra of the San Joaquin valley.

FISH PRODUCTS OF STATE IN LEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 7.—California's fresh fishery products lead the world. This industry, probably unknown to many, has been for many years one of the greatest of the industries of the Golden State, but it remained for the startling increase in 1928 to show world leadership with a production of over half a billion pounds of fish.

This figure, showing an increase over the production last year of 104,113,862 pounds, is taken from a report which is now in course of preparation for publication by E. H. Dado, of the bureau of Commercial Fisheries, Division of Fish and Game.

Much of interest is contained in this mass of figures showing all of the fish taken in California waters and from south of the international boundary line brought into California.

Sardines Lead
Sardines, as usual, lead with 420,269,665 pounds as against 342,275,289 during 1927. The great increase in the production of mackerel is an interesting feature of the report which shows that due to the greatly increased activity in the canning of this fine food fish, 35,261,298 pounds taken in 1928 place it in second place. This was an increase over 1927 of 30,525,395 pounds.

Third on the list we find bluefin tuna with 13,700,870 pounds. In 1927 4,898,385 pounds was considered an excellent record. Sole finished fourth with 10,280,419 pounds; rockfish fifth with 6,414,971; salmon totalled 4,478,566; barracuda, 4,385,214; shipjack 4,262,732; abalones 2,066,243; bonito 1,317,963; herring 1,139,682; and halibut 1,308,053 pounds.

Others Popular
Prompano totalled 3,295 pounds and pike 3,780, while 1,029 pounds of suckers were caught also. In the Sacramento-San Joaquin district 168 pounds of terrapin were taken, and eels with 227 pounds remained the smallest figure on the list. However, this figure was increased from five pounds in 1927, 222 pounds being taken in the Los Angeles district and 2 in the San Francisco-San Mateo section.

The Monterey county district leads the state due to the enormous sardine catches brought in with 229,123,321 pounds of fish, while the Los Angeles district with 217,466,068 pounds is second. This district produced 29,872,267 pounds of the big mackerel catch. The San Francisco-San Mateo district with 44,294,407 was third; San Diego-Imperial, 20,024,176, fourth; Santa Cruz, 3,512,722, fifth; Marin 3,068,040 sixth; Del Norte-Humboldt 2,420,162 seventh; Alameda-Contra Costa 2,377,250 eighth; Mendocino-Sonoma 2,168,520 ninth and Orange 1,821,510 tenth.

The Salinas-Yolo district was low, but accounted for 514,553 pounds of fish included in the record breaking total for the state during 1928.

The crabs taken numbered 148,927 dozen; pismo clams totalled 125,205 pounds and shrimps 2,280,871 pounds.

Indicates Growth
The total of fish brought from south of the international boundary into San Diego was 26,040,412 pounds while 23,730,871 came into the port of San Pedro. Yellowfin tuna was the biggest item in this catch, a total of 32,168,580 pounds coming into the two ports.

"This grand total, showing the enormous growth of the fishing industry in California, denotes a real accomplishment since the organization of the Fish and Game commission. Before records were kept and fishermen controlled by the commission, there was no method of obtaining such valuable statistics, which show California as the leading state in one of the greatest and oldest of all industries," N. B. Scofield, head of the bureau of Commercial Fisheries, declared after carefully examining the report which will be ready for publication within a few weeks.

Hey, Fishermen! A prize for you "STRIPERS" are running beyond ANTIOCH BRIDGE

VENISON COSTS PIEDMONT MAN HEAVY FINE

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 7.—Clifford Almy, superintendent of streets of Piedmont, may have figured it was a good trick to have deer meat concealed in his office in the city hall over five months after the season closed, but after being taken into court and paying a $150 fine as a game law violator it is at least presumed that he doesn't feel quite so good about it.

According to information secured after considerable time at work on the case, Assistant Chief of Patrol Milton Clark and deputies Alan Curry and Ed Moody of the Division of Fish and Game, walked into Almy's office and asked "where are those two deer?" Almy maintained a blank expression and declared the boys must be mistaken. Upon their suggestion that they take a look around his expression changed, but he consented, and when Curry, at Clark's order, started up a ladder leading to a small room over Almy's desk, he changed his tune and when Curry brought down three hams and three shoulders of venison in fine condition, he admitted his guilt.

Almy was taken into the court of Judge Jacob Harder, Jr., at Haywards, and upon his guilty plea was fined $15. The charge was possession of deer meat out of season.

As a result of the arrest and seizure of the venison, patients of the San Francisco Relief Home will partake of the choice cuts that several in attendance at the hearing admitted were to be used for a banquet arranged for the Piedmont fire department. "However few patients at the home ever have a chance to hunt deer while a fireman can when the season is open," one of the officers remarked.

"I am as much pleased with the arrest of Almy, and the fine assessed. This shows that our men are active in enforcing the law that are made to conserve and protect fish and game, and violators, whoever they are, are entitled to neither sympathy or immunity," E. L. Macaulay, chief of patrol, remarked after the case was closed.

TROUT SEASON WILL OPEN MAY 30

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Despite irresponsible reports to the contrary, all fishermen and vacationists who may seek recreation in Inyo, Mono and Alpine counties are warned that the trout season does not open until May 30 instead of May 1. This information was sent out by the headquarters of the Division of Fish and Game here and is authentic and official.

In the month of May most of the trout in this district, which is classified in the fish and game laws as District 4½, are spawning fish, and it is of the utmost importance that these fish be protected during the spawning season, division officials insist.

This is a remarkably fine fishing territory and it is necessary to protect the fish during the spawning period to keep it so, as without eggs to carry on hatchery operations it would be only a short while until the waters in this fine district are as barren as they are in numerous other places. Anglers are warned that the trout season does not open in District 4½ until May 30.

LUJIC LEADS RIFLE SHOOT

Albert Lujic led both adult and junior riflemen in target matches held at the Richmond National Rifle club's indoor range here last night. Shooting with a .22 calibre rifle, young Lujic scored 89 points out of a possible 100.

F. R. Kelly shot 85, F. Finley scored 82, M. G. Lujic scored 77 and Clarence MacKay hung up a 70.

Pedagogs Continue To Attend School

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 7.—UP—Approximately one-third of Connecticut's school teachers are still going to school an announcement by the Department of Education of Yale university revealed. Many superintendents, supervisors and principals, as well as teachers are numbered among those enrolled as pupils.

Youngest Vet

Ralph Kress, the youngster from the Pacific Coast, is one of the few ball players to make a regular place for himself on a major league team in his first time up. From playing shortstop for a semi-pro team in California to the American League with only one short-year intervening is the record of the hard hitting striping of the St. Louis Browns. Kress appears to be one of the best natural hitters to come up in recent years. The main fault with Ralph in 1928 was in the defensive side of the game. From all reports he has ironed out most of the fielding faults and appears to be on the road to stardom.

CHRONIC CASE OF SORE LEG;
LIMB TURNED BLACK; AMPUTATION FORESTALL-
ED BY FONG WAN HERBES

July 10, 1928.
To Whom It May Concern:
Oakland, Cal.
About 15 years ago I underwent an operation that left my leg in an ulcerated condition from which I suffered a great deal. I treated it with many herbs, but got no relief. One wanted to operate on the leg; another wanted to amputate it.

About two and one-half years ago my leg turned black and I was not able to wear a shoe. A friend told me about Fong Wan, so I consulted him. Following his instructions as to diet and taking the herbs that he compounded now after eleven months my leg is in normal condition, and I am in perfect health.

MRS. MARY RUTH
66 Monte Vista Ave., Oakland, Cal.

People who wish to learn more about Fong Wan's knowledge of herbs and methods of healing should get his new book free at his office or mailed to any address upon receipt of 10c postage.

EUROPE GREET'S NEW TARIFF MEASURE

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(U.P.)—The Republican tariff bill, carrying in its 434 pages increased duties designed to meet demands for relief for both farmers and manufacturers, was thrown into the House hopper today and immediately became the center of a controversy that probably will keep Congress here all summer.

Beyond general increases for agriculture and industry, the measure provides for reaching in the tariff commission, both as to personnel and policy, and authorizes the president to investigate and recommend to Congress a new basis of valuation for tariff changes he may make under the flexible tariff provisions. It liberalizes present methods for valuations in order to secure speedy decisions on presidential changes, but retains the present restriction upon changes in tariff rates by the president, up or down, to 50 percent of existing rates.

Clamor Started
Examination of the measure, secret except to Republican members of the Ways and Means committee until noon today, set up a general clamor. State delegations immediately began to hold caucuses. Farm leaders said it would help some, but did not go far enough. Representatives of manufacturing districts were pleased at what they got, but wanted more.

Republican leaders and members of the Ways and Means committee who drafted the bill, claim the changes made are necessary to continued prosperity. Democrats generally withheld comment until they had studied the measure more carefully, but Democratic Floor Leader Garner, who is also ranking minority member of the Ways and Means committee, jumped to his feet as soon as the bill was introduced and demanded that Democrats be given opportunity to offer amendments, which was aimed at Republican leaders who plan to permit only committee amendments.

Limited Revision
Republicans confronted by division in their own ranks, will hold caucuses to determine party policy, at which an effort will be made to bind members to the bill as it stands, carrying out, as it does President Hoover's desire for "limited revision."

The Ways and Means committee will meet Thursday to report the bill formally. The measure then may go before the House for general debate. It is the plan of Republican leaders to wait until sentiment crystallizes after two or three days of general debate.

CITY COUNCIL HALTS REFORMS OF NEW MAYOR

QUINCY, Ill., May 7.—(U.P.)—Like a triumphant warrior, Frank Jasper, Quincy's new democratic mayor, strode into his office, picked up the official broom to make a clean sweep of the police and fire departments only to find that sometimes the victor does not gather all the spoils.

Jasper turned a doubtful ear to those who urged him on. The doubt in his mind was caused by an irate and unsympathetic city council and a set of stubborn officials who refuse to withdraw although the mayor had announced the dismissal of some 35 policemen, eight detectives, and 25 firemen, including the chiefs of the two departments.

The city council refused to approve his actions; today when some 80 new appointees reported for duty they were turned away by the former heads of the departments.

At the same time Jasper was elected mayor the proposal to inaugurate a civil service commission here was defeated. Quincy is the only city of its size in Illinois without civil service regulations.

Drivers Warned To Keep License Plates Cleaned

SACRAMENTO, May 7.—The approach of California's rainless season was heralded today by an announcement by the Division of Motor Vehicles that motorists will be expected to comply with sections of the law requiring that license plates be kept free from dust and grease.

License plates, it was stated, are intended to identify the car to which they are attached. Although the new plates provide the maximum of visibility, they are useless for the purpose intended if covered with dust, mud and dirt.

Traffic officers operating throughout the state were instructed to see that the law is complied with.

before formulating a rule about its consideration. The tariff is loaded with dynamite and they realize it.

Shadow Of Old
Stalking about in the background, principally in the senate, is the shadow of old "general revision," whose forces will seek to open the tariff up far beyond the scope of changes provided in the House measure, estimated at between 15 and 20 percent by Chairman Hawley.

In the wings also stand representatives of foreign nations here who are disgruntled over changes that will tend to eliminate their goods from the American market. Principal interest centered in the increase of the sugar tariff from 2.2 cents a pound to 3 cents on top grades, which will make a rate for Cuba, with its 20 percent differential, 2.4 cents instead of 1.5 cents.

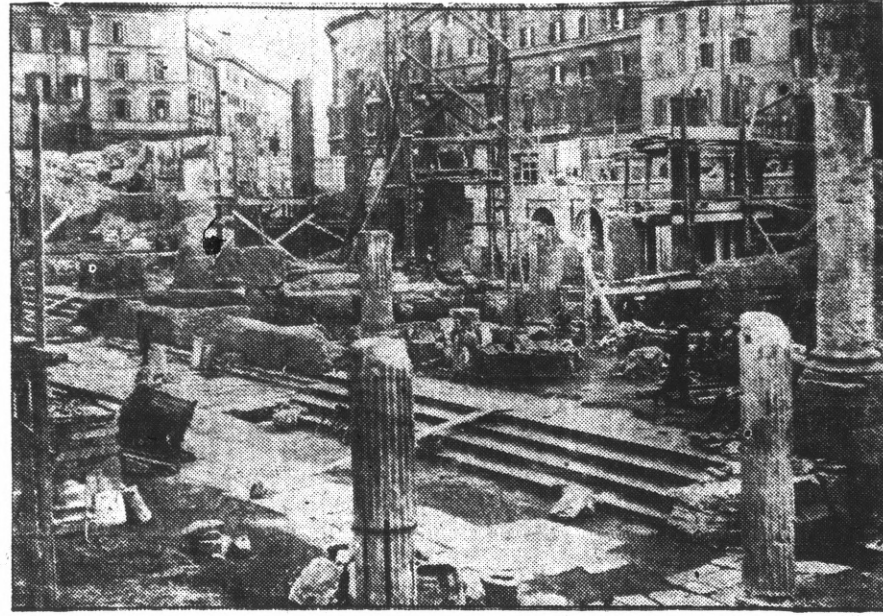

Many Omissions
Many omissions were noted. Hides, lumber, boots and shoes, raw cotton and raw silk were left on the free list.

The agricultural schedules were re-adjusted in many cases. The tariff on wheat, however, was left at 42 cents, which is the old rate of 30 cents plus the increase of 12 cents ordered by the president since the 1922 act; the rate on oats, rye, flour and potatoes remained the same. The rate on rice was increased from 2 to 2 1/2 cents.

Dairy Product Raise
The bill provides raises for dairy products. The 12 cent rate on butter was approved. Other dairy products were given compensatory duties. Duty on fresh milk was increased from 1 1/2 cents to 5 cents. Other new rates are 1.4 cents on condensed or evaporated milk; 2 1/4 cents on sweetened condensed milk, and 2 cents on all other; cheese and its substitutes, 7 cents, but not less than 35 percent ad valorem.

The duty on poultry was adjusted to that on beef at 5 cents a pound for live birds and 8 cents a pound for dressed fowls, except turkeys which are 10 cents a pound. Eggs are increased from 8 to 10 cents a dozen.

Old Ghost Town Returns To Life

TRAVEL, May 7.—(U.P.)—One of California's best known "ghost" towns returned to life here with a population of approximately 500 citizens for one day, when visitors came from as far north as Sacramento and as far south as Los Angeles.

"Citizens" is the proper word to describe the returning population for all of the 500 persons were former residents, gathered in reunion. It was the 45th anniversary of the founding of Travel, once a 3,000 population center of a great grain and horticultural area.

Every building in the town has disappeared. The last to go was the De L Zante hotel, burned to the ground last year, together with a little store.

Alkali was responsible for Travel's demise as a municipality. The chemical came to the surface with irrigation, killing grain, orchards and vineyards.

Cattle now roam over sparse "salt grass" where once a prosperous community existed. The 500 reunionists picknicked beneath the great eucalyptus trees that border what once was the Travel school yard.

Branding May Halt Theft Of Chickens

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 7.—(U.P.)—Chicken and turkey stealing in Oregon are going to be rather ticklish operations as soon as the plans under way by Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, are completed.

The plans call for recording of poultry brands under existing statutes. Each bird will be branded by a tattoo method, no injury being done to the bird or to any edible portion of it as the mark will be made on the thin membrane of the wings.

Thus all poultry and livestock properly branded will carry identity from farm to consumer. Producers living close to each other will under the new plan be able to identify promptly stray turkeys or chickens.

SINCLAIR AIDS DOCTOR IN JAIL

WASHINGTON, May 7.—(U.P.)—A day in the District of Columbia jail has transformed Harry Sinclair from a glum and nervous millionaire to a popular and useful prisoner.

He spent the first of the 90 days he must remain in confinement for contempt of the Senate concealing bills for colds and grippe, assisting the prison physician, with a minor surgical operation and generally ingratiating himself with officials and prisoners alike.

To his dormitory mates he is a hero, not because of his wealth or his power, but because he was one of the race horses they used to bet on and because he is taking his "rap" with good grace. Officials are pleased with his attitude and his usefulness as a registered pharmacist.

Fairly Cheerful
Sinclair's own reactions could not be learned. Officials and trustees said he seemed "fairly cheerful." Miss Mary K. Wright, the nurse with whom Sinclair will work for three months, thought him a "very nice man." "He is taking it like a man," said Dr. Morris Hyman, the prison physician, of his new assistant. "He hasn't talked very much and seems glad to have work. I have had him busy most of the time making capsules for the supply room."

Was Druggist
Sinclair was a druggist before he was a world famous financier. He studied pharmacy at the University of Kansas and worked as a drug clerk until he learned that his genius ran to finance rather than pharmacy.

Officials said Sinclair's fitness for a position in the dispensary would make it necessary to remove him to the district workhouse at Occoquan, Va. He will serve his entire three months' sentence and six additional months, if his sentence for jury shadowing is upheld by the supreme court, in the district jail.

Up With Sun
Sinclair was up with the sun this morning despite his late retirement last night, when he sat up answering the questions of his bunk mates and smoking innumerable cigarettes.

Soon after breakfast Superintendent Peak assigned him to dispensary duty. After being examined and finger printed, he reported to Dr. Hyman, who immediately set him to work with mortar and pestle. He will work from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. every day except Sunday and will be subject to call at all times.

This evening Sinclair read and listened to radio concerts. Prisoners in his dormitory are allowed the freedom of the Rotunda until 9 p. m. when all lights are extinguished.

Johnston Aids Canvass City

WALTER J. JOHNSTON, candidate for city council, whose workers are making a thorough canvass of the city voters.

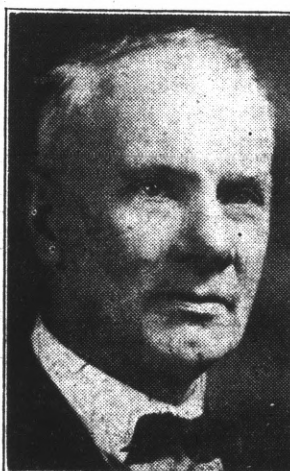

WORKERS FOR JOHNSON ASK BUSINESS MAN

Reports are being received that the organized campaign committee, that is hard at work in the interest of Walter J. Johnston, candidate for councilman at the coming election, is making rapid headway in its systematic canvass of the city.

There is not a section of the city that is being overlooked, and much volunteer work is being done to insure the election of Johnston.

The principal arguments of the campaign committee is that business men should be on the council, that Johnston is of that calibre, has been in business for the past 20 years, and knows the needs of the people of Richmond. They contend that as Johnston has made a success of his private business, as a result of the careful attention he gives to it, that this experienced gained through years will be of inestimable value as a member of the council.

supply and distribution of a crop. By adopting the principles of the federal farm relief bill our $7,000,000 deciduous fruit industry can place itself on a sound basis, giving a fairer return to producers and, at the same time, protecting consumers against extreme price fluctuations.

"The soundness of the federal plan as applied to the fruit industry has been passed upon by leading economists and business advisors."

The program Conn said means: "That 20,000 growers can sell their crops for cash at stabilization prices."

"That retail producers will receive from 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents a pound during a three year period."

"That fruit manufacturers with interests pooled for the reduction of operative costs, will work on the development of new products and expansion of markets."

Industry Stabilized
"That stabilization of the fresh fruit industry will be effected through regulation of dried fruit operations."

"The organization now proposed has been inspired by the farm relief proposals under consideration in congress and represents the most colossal undertaking ever developed for the farmers of any state."
